

Opportunities to succeed don't come much clearer than this.

Trust, creativity and a commitment to innovation are the qualities that have made JohnsonDiversey Europe's #1 cleaning and hygiene products and services provider. These are also the qualities we are looking for in our Trainees.

As well as working for a Global Company with operations in 60 countries, JohnsonDiversey sells some of the UK's best-known brands.

Right from the start you will be involved in projects that will make a difference to our business. You will combine real responsibility with a structured development programme to build your business appreciation and your Management and Leadership capability. You will spend time working with our sales teams and customers and get the opportunity to work in one of our Operating Companies in Europe.

We are looking for Graduates to join us in Sales, Finance, Supply Chain and Research, Development and Engineering.

Sales

You will spend time in sales and marketing and will soon be fully accountable for offering market leading service and growing your own portfolio of accounts in a dynamic business to business sales environment.

Finance

As well as fully supporting you work towards your CIMA qualification, you will be joining a high performing team and given the opportunity to work on business critical projects to broaden your business knowledge.

Supply Chain

From managing teams and running your own projects in our 2005 award winning Factory of the Year, to experiencing planning operations in Europe, supply chain trainees form an integral part of our business.

Research, Development and Engineering

We are looking for people who are motivated by applying science to create innovative solutions for our customers. You may be interested in a career within RD+E, or branching out into Technical Sales and Marketing. You will need a degree either in Chemistry, Chemical Engineering or a Chemistry related subject.

Salary and Benefits

Starting salary is £24,000, with the option of £1,000 paid in advance on your first day. Plus eligibility for an annual Profit Share Bonus, 25 days holiday, free healthcare, pension and other lifestyle benefits.
