Increase production flexibility
through faster cleaning

Increase production flexibility through faster cleaning

Andele is your CIP product of choice

Andele brings you:

Time savings - time and time again

Consistent product quality

Operational efficiencies and cost savings

One product for all your CIP needs

Time savings - time and time again

Andele sets a new benchmark in time efficiency and productivity for the beverage industry. Andele's innovative 3-step cold CIP program replaces the traditional 5-step hot CIP to cut CIP time in half. Hours once spent on cleaning can now be spent on production.

- > Increase production flexibility
- > Boost productivity
- > Use production assets more efficiently
- > Produce at lower cost

Consistent product quality

Already proven in the most demanding production environments, Andele uses a powerful and patented blend of detergent ingredients to deliver a robust and broad spectrum cleaning performance.

- > Eliminates all traces of the most pungent products
- > Removes accumulated mineral deposits which block filling valves
- > Provides effective cleaning for sensitive products
- > Ensures consistent product quality

Operational efficiencies and cost savings

Andele requires fewer steps, less water and no heat, enabling you to :

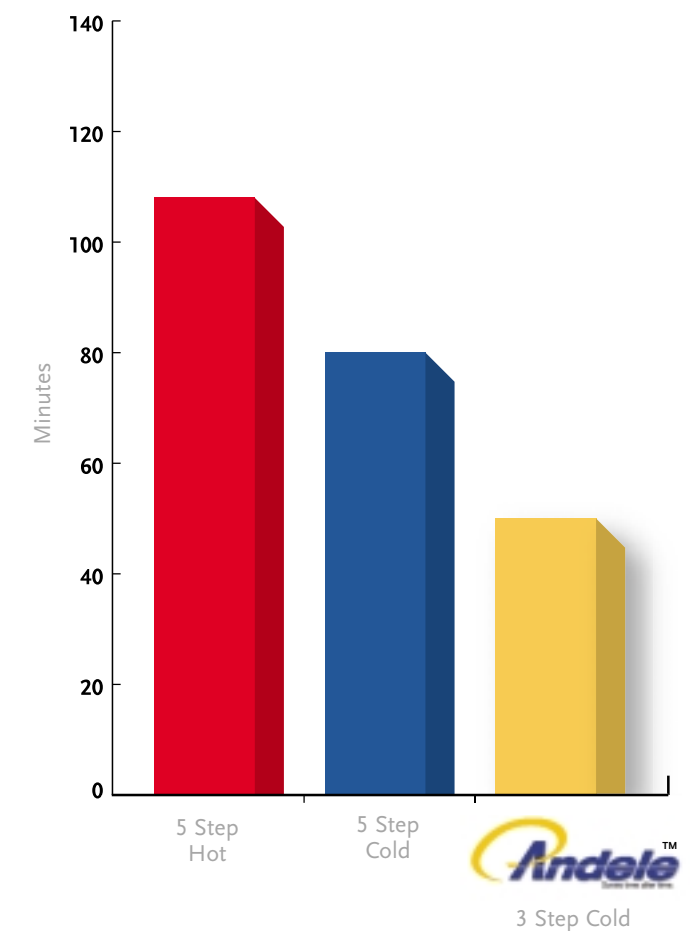

- > Save money on your water bill by reducing consumption and discharge
- > Conserve energy
- > Reduce wear and tear on equipment by eliminating heat
- > Extend the life of your capital investment and reduce operational costs

One product for all your CIP needs

Andele is the only cleaning product you will need to clean holding tanks and filling equipment regardless of the flavors you are using and the products you are producing.

- > Fast and easy product change-over
- > Simplified cleaning
- > Greater cleaning performance, simplified employee training, and less risk

Average time to clean

Summary

Andele is what the beverage industry has asked for - a simple cleaning program that reduces operational costs, saves cleaning time, and increases production flexibility, time and time again.

Andele reduces cleaning time and yet still provides unsurpassed cleaning
